

Notice to user

As principal (the person revoking the appointment), you complete Part 1 and Part 2 of this form.

You will need a witness to sign at the end of Part 2 and to complete Part 3.

Note: You must take reasonable steps to inform every attorney affected by this revocation that you are bringing his/her appointment to an end. If you fail to do this, your attorney can legally continue to make decisions on your behalf.

If the power of attorney is registered under the Land Titles Act 1994, you must also deregister it.

PART 1: Statement revoking the appointment of an attorney or attorneys

1. I, , of , revoke the enduring power of attorney dated  which appointed as my attorney.

PART 2: Statement of understanding

2. I fully understand that I am revoking a document where I gave power to my attorney/s to make decisions on my behalf about:

- personal matters (including health matters)
- financial matters.

I understand that I was able to specify or limit the power of my attorney/s, and that I was also able to give instructions about how the power was to be exercised. I understand that the enduring power of attorney gave my attorney the power to do, for me, anything that I could lawfully do myself in relation to these matters (except for special personal/health matters), subject to any limitation that I set.

I understand that, under the Act, my attorney/s could not begin to make decisions on my behalf until:

- (if ever) I became incapable of understanding the nature and foreseeing the effects of such decisions, or of communicating those decisions; or
- (if any) the time or occasion specified in the form appointing an attorney/s for financial matters.

I understand that I may change or revoke an enduring power of attorney at any time so long as my power to make such a decision is not impaired - that is, so long as I am capable of making another enduring power of attorney. (Note: You can revoke an enduring power of attorney without necessarily making another one.)

PART 3: WITNESS'S CERTIFICATE

In order to revoke an enduring power of attorney, the principal must have the same capacity as that needed to make an enduring power. It is your responsibility to check that the principal has this capacity.

It is strongly recommended that you make a record of the proceedings and of the questions you asked to determine that the principal had the capacity to revoke the enduring power of attorney.

3. I, , state that -

(a) I am a:

- justice of the peace
- commissioner for declarations
- lawyer
- notary public,

(b) I am not:

- the person signing for the principal
- or an attorney of the principal
- or a relation of the principal or of the principal's attorney/s,

(c) (Tick one box only)

- I am not a current paid carer or health provider for the principal
- I am a current paid carer or health provider for the principal, but the enduring power of attorney being revoked appointed an attorney/s for financial matters only (Note: "Paid carer" does not mean someone receiving a carer's pension or similar benefit.),

(d) (Tick one box only)

- the principal signed this revocation of an enduring power of attorney in my presence
- in my presence, the principal instructed a person to sign this revocation of an enduring power of attorney for the principal on his/her behalf, and that person signed it in my presence and in the presence of the principal,

and

(e) at the time that this revocation of an enduring power of attorney was signed, the principal appeared to have the capacity to make an enduring power of attorney giving the same power as the document being revoked, - that is, to understand the matters set out in Part 2.
